Thanks for joining us today for this time of worship. We are glad that you have chosen to be a part of our services today. We welcome you here and it is our prayer that you will find your visit today one that meets a need in your life and one that encourages you to face the challenges of life with the faith that says, God knows and He cares. It is our hope that you will find us to be a place that you can soon call "Home". Thanks again for coming! -WELCOME MEMBERS, FRIENDS AND GUESTS -

PASTOR'S THOUGHT: John 10:11 – "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep."

The British pastor John Fawcett was saved under the ministry of George Whitfield when he was a teenager. After several years of effective ministry in a small rural church in Yorkshire, England, Fawcett was called to pastor the London church where the renowned John Gill had held the pulpit for many years. Fawcett agreed to make the move. He preached his farewell sermon and had all his belongings loaded into wagons. But as Fawcett looked at the people into whom he had poured his life and saw them weeping, he was struck with the realization that he could not leave them behind. Fawcett turned down the well-known and well-paid pulpit in London and spent another thirty-five years in virtual obscurity with his flock. Not very long after making the decision to stay, Fawcett penned these words that through the years has become a famous hymn:

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love:
The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.
We share our mutual woes, our mutual burdens bear,
And often for each other flows the sympathizing tear.

Not just pastors but all of God's people need to have hearts that beat with love and concern for others. There are many excuses and reasons people give to reject the message of the Gospel, but a loving heart is hard to refuse or to ignore. And as Christians, we also need other believers to love, care for, and encourage us as well. For the Body of Christ to be healthy and to remain healthy, our hearts must be joined together.

Sincerely and Gratefully,

Bro. Kerry

LOVE IS WORTHLESS UNLESS IT ACTS OUT, UNLESS IT'S EXPRESSED IN DEED AND BEHAVIOR..

Music Notes

Choir Practice today @ 5:00 - The Bible says God loves to hear the songs His children sing to Him. We are privileged to sing every week with special songs of comfort, encouragement and commitment. Let us practice with that in mind.

Orchestra Practice Sundays @ 9:15 - Your playing for our worship services is adding to the voices of the congregation as we offer music praise to our Lord. Thank you for doing that.

Treehouse Kids Wednesdays @ 6:45 - The THK choir is practicing each week to present special songs and their Spring program. They love to sing for the Lord.

Winter Hymn Sing - January 30th - There is still room for specials, so sign up today and be ready to sing next week.

Danny Funderburk will be with us in the morning service on February 6th. Please pray for him as he comes to share his music ministry with us.
