November 20, 2022

On this Sunday before Thanksgiving Day, may we be reminded that as Christians, Thanksgiving is not as important as is Thanks-living. The life that we live, the inner emotions that we allow to rule and the daily display of our Christian virtues, should all say that the true birthmark of our inner faith is a Thankful Life. The conclusions that both friends and strangers make our faith is our fault. Wherever we might celebrate Thanksgiving Day may those that we gather with conclude that a Christian Life is a Thankful One. Have a great week and don't overdo it!! - WELCOME MEMBERS, GUESTS & FRIENDS -

PASTOR'S THOUGHT: Psalm 136:26 – "O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for His mercy endureth forever."

In the classic Peanuts Thanksgiving cartoon, Snoopy gets a regular bowl of dogfood rather than a holiday meal. He responds, "This isn't fair. The rest of the world is eating turkey with all the trimmings, and all I get is dogfood." Then Snoopy stood there and stared at his dogfood for a moment and said, "I guess it could be worse. I could be a turkey."

The key to being thankful is in remembrance – not just for what we have been given, but for what we have been spared. In our self-esteem focused society, people do not like to consider the true state of man. We build ourselves up so that we feel better about ourselves, but the reality is that every person born into this world is born into a desperate situation. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 3:36). We who know Christ as our Saviour have much to be thankful for indeed.

We have been given so much, yet too often our only focus is on what we do not have. Allowing our happiness to be dictated or controlled by comparing what we have to what we think we deserve, or to what others have is a recipe for disaster. It quickly leads us not to be just ungrateful for what we have received, but to begin coveting the things that other people have. This path quickly leads to all kinds of sin. There is more than just obedience involved in thankful living. Taking time to remember and give thanks protects us from the evil tendencies of our hearts. May God Bless you and your family with a wonderful Thanksgiving Season!

Sincerely & Gratefully,
Bro. Kerry

Music Notes

Choir Practice today @ 4:45 - Every time we are privileged to sing in a service, please remember Who we’re singing for. That will make each song more meaningful to us and to those who hear us. Please practice with that in your mind and heart.

Orchestra Practice Sundays @ 9:15 - By playing an instrument in the orchestra each player offers a different “voice” to our music worship. If you play/ played an instrument add your “voice” to the orchestra.

Treehouse Kids Wednesdays @ 6:45 - THK is another word for busy because each week THK sing and have a Bible study and games and refreshments - so, in a word, they are, BUSY, with good things each week. All kids are invited to join in.

Music Thot: Thanksgiving Day is this Thursday. Are you/we, singing thankful praises to our great and giving God. Thanksgiving is Thanksliving.
